AGED TEXAN WEDS A BLUSHING MISS

Friend of Virginia Family Becomes a Benedict.

Nathaniel W. Newson, of Munday, Tex., tall, angular, sixty-three years old, sporting a fine crop of ivory white chin whiskers and a Texas tan sombrero on his head, blew up to the marriage license desk yesterday afternoon, and informed Col. Belew that he had decided to enter the matrimonial state, and would like a license.

With the Texas was blushing Miss Bettie Meade, of Moneta, Va., ever so many years younger than her intended husband. And with Miss Bettie was her blushing sister, who volunteered the information that it would be years before she would apply for a license.

The elderly bridegroom said it was neither a runaway match nor a romance; that he was a farmer, raising all sorts of things on his holdings down in Texas, and that he had been a friend of Bettie's family for 10, these many years. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. John Reid Shannon.

Miss Alice Blech Bride of Lieut. Wainwright.

LARGE WEDDING GATHERING

Rev. Roland Cotton Smith Performs Ceremony—Miss Juliana Elliott and Dr. T. F. Murphy Married at Melrose, Chevy Chase—Miss Mildred Finckel to Wed Julian S. Burruss.

Miss Alice Sorrel Blech and Lieut. Richard Wainwright, Jr., U. S. N., were married yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock at St. John's Episcopal Church. Rev. Roland Cotton Smith performed the ceremony in the presence of a large gathering of friends and relatives. The bride, who is the daughter of Mrs. Paul Blech, was Mrs. Taft's social secretary at the White House, and only recently resigned her duties there. The bridegroom is the son of Rear Admiral Wainwright, U. S. N., and comes of a family prominent in naval circles for years.

Miss Alice's only attendant was her cousin, Miss Anita Mackall, of Savannah, Ga., and the best man was Lieut. Byron A. Long, U. S. N. The ushers were Lieut. Commander Ridley McLean, Lieut. Steve A. Roan, Lieut. John McEnochs, and Lieut. Harold E. Cook, all of the navy. The bride wore a gown of white satin charmeuse, made with square neck and long square train and trimmed with point lace. Her tulle veil was held with orange blossoms, and she carried a shower of white roses. The maid of honor wore pale violet satin, draped in white chiffon, and carried white sweet peas tied with lavender ribbon. A reception followed the ceremony in the home of the bride's mother, after which the bride and bridegroom left for their wedding trip.

Their home for the present will be in Washington, where the bridegroom is stationed. The cake was made by Mrs. Helen C. Browne, of New York, but was not cut with the bridegroom's sword.

Miss Juliana Randall Elliott, daughter of Mr. Thomas Munroe Elliott, and Dr. T. F. Murphy were married last evening at 8 o'clock at the home of the bride's mother, at Melrose, Chevy Chase. The bride was given in marriage by her brother, Mr. Alexander Munroe Elliott, and was attended by her sister, Miss Virginia Elliott, as maid of honor. Dr. Arthur L. Hunt was best man. The ceremony was attended by a small party of relatives and friends, and was followed by a reception with a color scheme of pink. Wild honeysuckle and pink roses were used in profusion. The bride-elect erected in the front drawing-room was festooned with the wild honeysuckle and dogwood, and stood in front of the bay window, which was covered, curtain fashion, with asparagus vine tied with pink ribbon. Rev. Father Smith of St. Ann's Church, Tennantville, officiated.

The bride, who is beautiful, was dressed in white crepe de chene with a trimming of Irish lace and pearls. Her veil of tulle was held with orange blossoms, and she carried lilies of the valley and white roses. Miss Virginia Elliott wore pink satin and carried sweet peas. Mrs. Elliott, mother of the bride, who has been ill for some time, was able to be present at the wedding. She wore a gown of black crepe de chene trimmed with dull jet. Mrs. Mason, widow of Mr. William Madison Mason, of this city and New York, sister of the bride, wore blue crepe de chene. Mrs. Frederick L. Bucklew, of New Jersey, wore white satin. After the reception and wedding supper the bride and bridegroom started North for their wedding trip.

Mrs. Murphy wore dark blue cheviot, with a dark blue hat of rough straw with a large bow of blue ribbon and tiny pink roses. They will spend two months in Cleveland before returning here. Their future home will be at Chevy Chase.

Mrs. Nelson P. Wheeler, wife of Representative Wheeler, of Pennsylvania, has her sister, Mrs. E. Carl Smith, visiting her at the New Willard. Mrs. Smith has recently returned from California, where she and Mr. Smith have spent the last year. Mrs. Wheeler will visit her daughter, Mrs. J. Allen Farley, in Rochester, N. Y., next week.

A daughter was born to Senator and Mrs. Beveridge yesterday morning. This is the second birth in the Senator's family. The first child is a son, twenty months old.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Smiley, of Brooklyn, N. Y., are at the Ebbitt.

Miss Mildred Finckel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Finckel, and Mr. James Sheppard Burruss will be married this evening at 8 o'clock at the Luther Place Memorial Church, the pastor, Rev. Lloyd C. Douglas, officiating. The bride's sister, Miss Harriet Finckel, will be her maid of honor, and she will be given in marriage by her father. Mr. Robert Page Burruss will act as best man for his brother, and the ushers will be William Henry Finckel, Jr., a brother of the bride; Luther Schreiner, Chauncey Pugh, and Prof. Montgomery Bird, of Charlottesville, Va. The bride's parents will give an informal reception at their home in S street, which will follow the ceremony at the church. The couple will leave Washington for a trip in the North, and upon their return will be at home at 1435 Newton street.

The Minister from Sweden and Mme. Lagercrantz will depart Saturday for New York, from where they will sail for their home in Sweden.

Mr. and Mrs. Newton P. Scudder, of Linden, Md., announce the engagement of their daughter, Florence Louise, to William Wentworth Dudley, of Takoma Park, D. C. The marriage will take place at Woodside, Md., probably in the latter part of May.

Capt. Archibald W. Butt, U. S. A., aid to the President, was host at luncheon yesterday in compliment to Lieut. Kenneth G. Castleman, U. S. N., and Mrs. Castleman, of Louisville, Ky., who are visiting in Washington from Newport.

Young Speckles came into notoriety in New York last year by his infatuation for Miss Case, an Oregon girl, who was studying music abroad.

Lecture on Y. W. C. A. Summer Home. To promote interest in Silver Home, Lake George, the summer home maintained by the Y. W. C. A., a lecture will be given at St. Paul's Lutheran Church to-night at 8 o'clock, by Miss Florence M. Brown, general secretary of the association. A silver offering will be taken up.

Miss Louise Cole and Robert Sidney Belknap, of Amherst, Mass., were the honor guests of Miss Katherine Leech yesterday at an informal tea, which was followed by the rehearsal of the wedding which will take place this afternoon. The additional guests were the members of the bride party and a few out-of-town guests.

Mrs. J. William Henry entertained at 5 o'clock tea yesterday afternoon at her home in R street, in honor of the president of the Maryland Society Colonial Dames, Mrs. William Reed, of Baltimore, Md. Mrs. Henry had assisting in receiving her guests, Mrs. Cox, president general of the Colonial Dames, while Mrs. Robert Hinckley and Mrs. George Downey presided at the tea table. The house was decorated with palms and quantities of spring blossoms.

Miss Mary Susannah Handy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Levin C. Handy, and Mr. George Wendell Evans were married last evening at 8:30 o'clock in the Fifth Baptist Church. The bride's only attendant was her sister, Miss Alice Handy, the maid of honor, and little Miss Mary Imrie, who acted as flower girl. Mr. Evans' best man was his brother, Mr. John Penhallow Evans, and the ushers were Mr. Edwin Evans and Mr. Frank Evans, brothers of the bridegroom; Edwin E. Vrooman, John Tucker, and Clinton Smith. A small reception for the relatives and intimate friends, at the home of the bride's parents in Maryland avenue, followed the ceremony.

Mrs. Carter, wife of Senator Carter, of Montana, entertained at tea yesterday afternoon from 4 to 6, in compliment to the senior class of Trinity College. Those who assisted Mrs. Carter in receiving her guests were Mrs. C. M. Hicks, Mrs. Hillier, Mrs. J. J. Walsh, Mrs. Russell B. Harrison, Mrs. Avery, and Mrs. Harry K. Daugherty. The house was decorated with palms, ferns, and white flowers. The guests invited to meet the Trinity seniors were the senior classes from Immaculata, Holy Cross, and the Visitation convents, the Montana girls from the National Park Seminary, members of Senator Carter's fraternity, the senior class of Georgetown University, and the Georgetown Dramatic Association.

COUSIN OF PRINCESS DEAD

Naples Bay Victim Also Bryn Mawr Graduate.

Sister in New York Says Miss Estelle Reid Was Expert Swimmer and Must Have Been Killed.

New York, April 26.—Mrs. Bertha Reid Wells, of 400 Riverside drive, an older sister of Miss Estelle Reid, who was found drowned in the bay of Naples last week, cabled to-day to Princess Rupprecht, who lives at Rome and is a cousin of the dead woman, asking that she make arrangements to ship the body to this city. The princess was formerly a Miss Reid.

Mrs. Wells said her sister Estelle was a graduate from Bryn Mawr, and the owner of extensive properties in California, Wisconsin, Texas, and in this State. While at college Miss Reid roomed with Miss Margaretta MacVeagh, daughter of Wayne MacVeagh.

Miss Reid went abroad with the MacVeaghs, and was received at the Italian court. She had been in Naples studying art for about a month prior to her death.

Mrs. Wells says her dead sister was devoted to all sorts of outdoor sports, and was an expert swimmer and diver. She scouted at the idea that Miss Reid killed herself, and believes she was killed by Naples fishermen after being robbed.

AERO COMPANY IS CHARTERED

State Grants Permission to Hold Amusements at College Park.

Besides Hotel and Clubhouse, Mile Track for Auto and Horse Racing Will Be Constructed.

Aviation received a boom when the Maryland legislature granted the use of College Park for an aviation meet, to the American Aero Exhibition Company of College Park, Md.

The charter provides the right to acquire real estate, maintain and appoint its own policemen, hold athletic exhibitions, a county fair, and other forms of general amusement.

The incorporators are William H. Mason, of St. Paul, Minn.; Jerome Joyce, the well-known hotel man, of Baltimore, and one of the leaders in the movement to have an international aviation meet at College Park; Frederick L. Fox, of Washington, D. C.; Robert E. Routh, of New York City, and William A. Stuart, of Pittsburgh, Pa.

At a meeting held Monday the incorporators appointed Robert W. Wells, a well-known Washington attorney, a trustee, with instructions to sell the first quarter of the stock, amounting to $300,000, to residents in Prince George County, Md. The sale of liquor will be prohibited. A hotel and a clubhouse will be erected.

A one-mile track for automobiles and horse racing will also be constructed. The central situation of the field gives it an advantage over any other for such a purpose, lying as it does about midway between Washington and Baltimore. At the meeting Monday night were Dr. William W. Christmas and Rexford Smith, two well-known aviators.

CHOSEN BY WOMEN

Daughters of 1812 Name Officers for Next Four Years.

MORE THAN 200 DELEGATES

Following Business Meeting, Social Gathering Is Held in Evening—Report of Mrs. John B. Richardson, National Historian, Feature of the Morning Session—Reception.

Mrs. Charles Catlin, of Wisconsin, is the newly-elected second vice president national, United States Daughters of 1812; Mrs. John Miller Horton, of New York, third vice president national, and Mrs. Mathias Steelman, of New Jersey, corresponding secretary.

They were chosen at yesterday afternoon's meeting of the annual convention in session at the New Willard. Each is to serve for a period of four years. Mrs. Steelman was the unanimous choice of the Daughters. Mrs. Catlin had only two opposing votes, Mrs. Barrow, of Arkansas, defeated by Mrs. Horton for third vice president, gracefully moved that her opponent be elected unanimously. The new officers made short speeches.

Nearly all of the 274 accredited delegates, the District Daughters, and invited guests attended the social gathering in the red parlor of the New Willard last night. A buffet supper, the compliments of the hotel, was served. Vocal selections by Mrs. Noble Newport Potts, of this city, were well received.

Presented with Bouquet. Mrs. William Gerry Slade, president national, carried a white bouquet of carnations, the society's flower, presented by Organizing State President Mrs. Golden, of Florida. Among the guests were Mrs. Matthew T. Scott, president general of the D. A. R.; Miss Ann Kress, of St. Louis, and Mrs. Frank Vance, of Milwaukee.

The report of Mrs. John B. Richardson, of Louisiana, national historian, was the feature of yesterday morning's session. Mrs. Richardson outlined the executive work of the national society from December, 1898, to April 1, 1910. She dwelt on the patriotic educational work, the marking of the 1812 heroes' graves, and the presentation of various gifts in the State chapters. The report referred to work of the Daughters in the following States:

Work of Daughters. Arkansas—Awarding to school children in competitive essay contests the painting by W. H. Powell of the battle of Lake Erie; Pennsylvania—Presentation of a marble fountain in Arsenal Park; Delaware—Completed arrangements to present to the battle ship Delaware next June, a portrait in oil of Commodore Jacob Jones; Ohio—Marking of many graves; New York—Establishment of pension funds for "real" Daughters, assistance to the Lincoln Memorial Association, presentation of a traveling library to Alaska; New Jersey—Presentation of framed copies of the Declaration of Independence to public schools, and the founding of sewing schools among the school children.

Mrs. Herbery Gates, of Omaha, president of the Nebraska State Society, read a report of the executive work of the Nebraska Chapter in the past year. This morning there will be a board meeting at the New Willard, a reception to the Daughters at the White House by President and Mrs. Taft at 2:30 in the afternoon, and reception to the "real" Daughters by Mrs. Noble Newport Potts, at her home, 1132 New Hampshire avenue.

NATIONAL COUNCIL MEETS. Washington and Nebraska Societies to Join Colonial Dames.

Washington and Nebraska branch societies will become affiliated with the national organization this morning at a meeting of National Council of Colonial Dames at the Arlington.

Important constitutional issues will be taken up at the next meeting, when the so-called insurgents will air their grievances. The principal one lies in the provision that the five representatives from each of the original States are entitled to vote, while two representatives only are allowed from other States, and have no vote.
